Centre for Energy Systems Intelligence (CESI)

February 2025

What's New at CESI?

Do you need help with proposal development? We can help with consortium-building, grant writing, and networking. Ask us :)

Seed funding applications are open! Seed proposals are meant to help with project and grant development. They will be reviewed by the core team the second Friday of each month. If you are interested, send us an email to Alicia on the EUR side (takaoka@rsm.nl) or Jhon on the TU Delft side (j.j.quinones.cortes@tudelft.nl), and we will forward you the template.

Workshop on AI for Thermal Systems and Green Hydrogen

The first workshop of 2025 was held at Erasmus University Rotterdam on 16 January. We heard from the EUR Thematic Lead Anubhav Goel, Laura Kaschny, and Mo Khosravi. They discussed their research and shared desired skills and topics for partnerships. This thematic group is officially open! Please reach out if you are interested in collaborating on a proposal or project.

Got Announcements?

We want to hear from you! Do you need consortium partners? Are you running a study or need respondents for a survey? Do you have a vacancy in your research group, lab, or school? Are you organizing a conference, workshop, or meeting? Send them along to Alicia at Erasmus (takaoka@rsm.nl) or Jhon on the TU Delft side (j.j.quinones.cortes@tudelft.nl) by 01 March 2025 for inclusion in our next newsletter.

To include an announcement in, ask a question about the newsletter, or unsubscribe, contact any of the Core Team members (EUR) Yashar Ghiassi-Farrokhi, Doron Gollnast, Alicia JW Takaoka, (TU Delft) Mathijs de Weerd, Caroline Duterloo, or Jhon Quinones Cortes
